Dr. Richard Greene is a 7-time Ironman Triathlete, performance expert, and business coach. His IronMan Sales Success Formula has been featured on ABC, CBS, NBC and Fox.

His client list includes Microsoft, Whole Foods, Target, JP Morgan Chase, CVS, Coors, The Mayo Clinic and Coca-Cola among many, many others.

He has more than 30 years' experience as a successful sales professional across a variety of industries, helping his clients sell well over 100 million dollars in business.

As a researcher in the field of human potential, and University Business Professor, he's studied success factors of those that are the top in their industries, and developed systems that professionals use to create unparalleled success in their careers and in their personal lives.

His biggest breakthrough in discovering "the success formula" came from his work as a Masters Swim Coach, training triathletes to prepare for their Ironman races. He discovered that these athletes had a unique way of thinking about success and that their mindset was so powerful that it enabled them to face extreme challenges, and succeed where most other people would fail.

Dr. Greene has distilled the Ironman mindset into an elite executive training program called The IronMind™ that can make your success unstoppable.

Most importantly, he found his mission of helping ordinary people do extraordinary things!

Rich resides in Sacramento, California with his amazing wife, two daughters, and his black lab Buster.
