

DISASTER RECOVERY

Downtime is one of the biggest IT expenses that any business can face. Centeris high performance, affordable solutions safeguard your mission critical data, maintain productivity and eliminate single points of failure. Centeris is uniquely suited to provide disaster recovery services, both as a primary and redundant data center for general enterprise purposes, as well as power-intensive areas such as cloud, rich content and media, gaming, health care and more. In short, Centeris Seattle South Hill provides the benefits of being in a major metro area without the risks.

BACKUP + POWER

- Dedicated data center facility – High power density cabinets, cages, secure private suites, custom tailored pods & work area recovery suites available
- Long-term flexibility and scalability.
- 50 MW dedicated onsite substation with dual-fed, expandable power infrastructure
- Full UPS back-up (N +1) of all critical loads; back-up generators provide 72 hours of availability
- Carrier neutral with a variety of leading fiber providers providing redundancy, resiliency and choice to meet your connectivity requirements
- Exceeds 99.999% uptime with continuous monitoring of all operations

ROCK SOLID

- In Seattle Metro without in-city risks
- Easy access to downtown Seattle, Bellevue and Seatac International Airport from multiple highway routes
- Located 525 feet above sea level and above 500 year flood plain
- Exceeds seismic standards and built on bedrock
- Redundant North and South fiber routes

NETWORK SECURITY

- Centeris' world class, highly reliable infrastructure and operational integrity ensures that your business and data are protected with the highest industry standards
- Private 86-acre campus protected by perimeter and individual building security fencing
- 24 x 7x 365 manned security and monitoring
- CCTV digital camera coverage of entire facility, integrated with access control and alarm system
- 24 x 7 x 365 dedicated operations team; remote hands and eyes services available
- Conference rooms, office space, ample parking, secure, park-like campus, and abundant nearby retail, hotel, healthcare and transit amenities